... the Center for New Corporate Priorities "is a radical corporate action group which does research but with its action-application in mind." For example, they've taken research from NACLA, Pacific Studies Center, etc. and expanded it and moved with it on a legal non-violent trip. Their objectives are "to understand the corporate decision-making process and why it usually results in policies contrary to the public interest, to design concrete alternatives for short-term change of corporate policy/and to educate the public that long-term change demands substantially different attitudes toward our economic, social and political structure." Contact at the center, Jim Lowery, 304 So. Aromore, Suite 101, L.A., Calif. 90020 . . .

... David Graham has proposed a project to "research new ideas emerging around the movement toward religion. Since the people involved in the research will be initiators of many of the ideas; the team itself defines the movement they are researching. Output will take the form of reports on work in progress" (to be made available in several media.) A priority of the project is a video-parlor in the town of Wickenburg, Arizona which would output the information from the research. We don't know the status of the project but you can reach him at P.O. Box 1176, Wickenburg, Arizona 85358 . . .

Domebook 2 has arrived. For a Manhattan resident, it's a wonder fantasy of sun domes, elliptical domes, portable pillow domes, scrounged domes, all domes. I wouldn't begin to build without it. If there is a #3 it will probably be called Shelter. Published by Pacific Domes it's available for $4.20/copy (add 20¢ tax if you're a California resident.) Box 279, Bolinas, Calif. 94924.

Living on Earth by Alicia Bay Laurel, Vintage Press .

A beautiful guide for anyone who is thinking of going back to nature. Lots of real survival information from building your own shelter and furniture to organic gardening, canning, making soap, and hundreds of things you really need to know.

For fact sheets regarding the ecological crisis, you might check into Earth Kit. As well as information on what can be done by action minded groups and individuals, Earth Kit lists groups to contact, bibliographical references, and offers comprehensive pamphlets on various facets of the ecology scene. $1.50 per issue; $10 (includes donation for a subscription. Environment! 150 5th. Ave., N.Y. C. 10011.

Canyon Collective. Here are some folks who are actually laying out concrete plans for making community change happen. They talk realistically about transforming present society by knocking down fences and walls and re-introducing flow into our lives. Among the topics they have been thinking about are shelter, recycling clothing, land, ecological transportation, free clinics, tenants unions, food co-ops, schools, and on and on. Well worth considering some positive alternatives. Box 77 Canyon, Calif. 94516.

Two other publications which have special interest to us because they're initiated new formats for disseminating information are Changes and the Space Atlas. Changes is for all you newspaper junkies who are concerned with the management of change but get caught up in the timely consumption of establishment papers. Changes is a neat pocket sized folder with stapled abstracts from major US and international papers and comes out thrice weekly. The only hassle is that it costs about $425 per year distributed by Futuremics, Inc. 1346 Conn. Ave. N.W. Washington, D.C. 20036; published by Orba Information Limited, 418 Saint Sulpice, Montreal 125 Canada.

The Space Atlas is a more workable model. It was conceived by Dana Atchley of The Ace Space Co. and is comprised of 8 x 10 information sheets which were sent in by subscribers then collated and distributed in a looseleaf binder by Ace Space. Dependent on new technology (i.e. instant printing, offset utilizing disposable paper plates, xerox etc.) the Space Atlas is a connective collage of information. Don't know what Ace Space is up to now but you can reach them at Box 361, Crested Butte, Colorado.

Other papers we'd like to thank for exchange publications or sample issues: The Great Swamp Erie Da Da Boom from the Cleveland area, Angry City Press 14016 Orinoco, East Cleveland, Ohio 44112 and New Orleans' Nola Express, Box 2342, New Orleans, L.A. 70116.
